1. A plan has been submitted to the Hungarian Ministry of Defense which will enable the members of the "partisan" (Fighters for Freedom) organization to participate in six-week training courses during the summers.
2. According to suggestions made by Colonel Ragyánszky (fnu), who is in charge of training in this para-military organization, it was decided by the Ministry that most of the "partisans" would be given new uniforms and equipment. The uniform will consist of an overall, low boots; a Soviet military kepi, a belt, and the partisan emblem with the rank insignia on the left arm.
3. The "partisans" also will be given new arms; they will train with 7.62 mm. and 9 mm. Soviet-made weapons.
4. The motorized sections will receive Hungarian 125 cu. cm. motorcycles made at Gsepel and Soviet IZS 350 cu. cm. motorcycles.
5. "Partisans" who will do particularly well in this training will be sent to the USSR for specialized courses. It is expected that 1,400 partisans will be sent to the USSR for training before the end of 1952.
